

Breakthrough Coaching, Inc.

Presents

Women's Leadership Coaching Group

▪Powerfully Reinventing Yourself Personally and Professionally▪

Breakthrough Coaching, Inc. offers the following benefits with this dynamic, interactive Women's Leadership Coaching Group:

- Receive tools and direction on how to live your life from your vision and passion
- Learn to shift undesirable habits and patterns that continue to sabotage your success
- Become proficient in managing your small business to be profitable
- Opportunity to partner with other women professionals
- Practice effective time management: be on time, prepared and highly productive

Breakthrough Coaching provides the objectivity and experienced insight to help you to face and overcome your current challenges. This creates a life that puts you in the driver's seat rather than being at the effect. You will learn to stand in your power and leadership as you move forward in all areas of your life. This group is for women who want to create sustainable change in their personal and business lives.

Program Investment: $350 per month

Program Format: Group coaching calls are conducted bi-monthly on Tuesday's from 6-7 P.M., PST. In addition, you receive two half-hour individual coaching calls per month.

The Program Leaders:

Zia Maria is the founder and President of Breakthrough Coaching, Inc.

Zia has a 25-year track record of coaching individuals and businesses to achieve unprecedented results. A national tri-athlete and former tennis pro, Zia was one of the first individuals in the state of California to provide executive and management coaching. She has dedicated her life to supporting people and organizations to achieve their personal and professional visions. She is an accomplished public speaker and facilitator who has inspired and trained thousands of business owners throughout the country. Zia lives in San Rafael, California with her daughter, Jessica.

Anne Lague Zorich

Anne brings to Breakthrough Coaching, Inc. a passion for working with individuals, which came from her experience as co-founder of an alternative chiropractic clinic in Roseville, California in 1990. Her studies of leadership, including Organizational Psychology at Sonoma State University, have enabled her to assist women in developing themselves as leaders. As a mother of three children Anne understands the challenges of work-life balance, and is instrumental in assisting individuals in designing and achieving that balance.

For more information or to secure your place, please contact Zia Maria at (415) 259-9910 or Anne Zorich at 916-207-9584